Pad Thai

This dish of flat rice noodles is stir fried in a house made sauce, with chinese sausage, green leaves of bok choy & topped with a fried egg. It is considered a test in Thai cooking, since it must be cooked over high heat, yet handled lightly so as not to break the delicate flavors.

Korean Fried Rice

Jasmine rice is stir-fried with excellent quality kimchi, chinese sausage & topped with a fried egg. The kimchi used in this dish is house made and of top quality & taste. The dish is cooked over very high heat to release the fragrance of the spices.
